"I have found the PASport attitudinal reports very useful in gaining insights into the inner motivations guiding the thoughts and actions of our team. Sharing these views has contributed to strengthening the team dynamics."

Mr. Massimo Giannecchini
President of Novimpianti Srl, Italy

"We have been using PASport for our Executive Search and Coaching practices for almost 6 years now. PASport has proven to be an effective additional mean to know better professionals participating of our selection processes, how they fit to our client's organizations, and to verify our assessment of the candidated one by using our step by step methodology. PASport has also been useful in Executive Coaching as it helps bring behavioral tendencies evidence to the coach."

Andréa de Paula Santos
Founder & Partner of Ascend, Brazil

"I use and distribute PASport tools since 2003. In my opinion it is the best tool to recruit people and put them in the right roles. PASport is extremely assertive. Another great use of PASport tools is to use them as a starting point in career guidance, as in COACHING processes."
